

Tradition

Hello everyone. I hope you are enjoying the holidays. I know I am—this is my favorite time of year. I really enjoy the activities and especially the people I get to hang out with—my family.

During this time of the year one word is always brought to my attention—tradition. Tradition can mean a lot of different things to different people, but to me it means keeping up the rituals we perform each year when the holidays roll around. Rituals like eating your granny's turkey or your Nana's homemade stuffing. Even maybe playing a few board games or telling a few old stories.

These are traditions I look forward to every year, it's almost like I expect them to happen.

The way I love tradition during the holidays is the same as the way I love traditions in the Limousin breed. There are many similarities, such as going to Denver in January, or always looking forward to the activities held at our National Junior Show. Most of all though, the tradition I love the most is getting to see my Limousin "family" and catching up on their lives. After all, that really is what we are—one big family who supports each other in times of need.

If we did not have traditions what would we have to look forward to? I encourage each of you to keep up the traditions you have in this breed in order to keep it going strong. Like one of our many rituals held each year, I hope to see all my "Limousin family" in Denver this year at the National Western Stock Show in January.

Happy Holidays & Merry Christmas
